From your President...

Daniel R. Lutz
Wayne County

My Fellow Prosecutors,

As most of you probably now know, we recently lost a wonderful friend and ally of Ohio prosecuting attorneys. John Murphy passed away on July 8, 2021, at eighty years of age.

He oversaw our association as its executive director for several decades, a position he dearly loved up until the day of his retirement just several years ago.

My relationship with John during the time our work with the OPAA overlapped was personally and professionally rewarding for me and, I'm sure, for many of you as well. John had outstanding character and was a role model for leadership excellence. John's passion for justice, his impeccable integrity, and his outstanding legal judgment has left an enduring legacy in the State of Ohio.

His impact on Ohio's criminal justice system through his decades-long influence upon many Ohio legislators and the OPAA cannot be overestimated.

Godspeed to you John Murphy.

Dan

From your Executive Director...

Louis Tobin
OPAA Executive Director

Dear OPAA –

At our most recent Executive Committee meeting someone asked whether the remarkable rise in violence over the last 18 months is being noticed by the General Assembly. Personally, I think it is impossible to ignore when practically every morning the news coverage is about the most recent homicide or shooting. I do think the mood at the Statehouse is starting to shift there. Unfortunately, that still leaves us with big criminal justice reform battles on issues like abolishing the death penalty and, most recently, bipartisan bail reform legislation.

I met recently with a legislator to talk to him about our concerns with the bail reform bills. He told me in no uncertain terms that Senate Bill 3 was defeated last year because legislators were getting calls from their prosecutors, sheriffs, and judges and then going to legislative leadership to tell them they didn't want go against their local officials. I can't stress enough how important a similar grassroots effort will be on both bail reform and the death penalty. The great advantage that we have over the army of lobbyists advocating for these bills and the disinformation they circulate are your local connections. Please consider contacting your own legislators to express concerns about these bills and remind them that the groups promoting them have no responsibility to your community or for public safety in Ohio.

Finally, a note about John Murphy. I have been around capitol square in a variety of roles for the past 15 years, most of that time working on justice system issues. I had the opportunity to work on many of the same issues that John was working on and always knew what a great lobbyist he was for the OPAA. What I couldn't comprehend until I replaced him is just how gifted he was as a lawyer and how tough he was as an advocate. He had a legal mind that was second to none, a sharp wit, and was a consummate professional. The state of Ohio is a better place because of him and he will be missed.

Lou

John Edward Murphy, whose legal career representing the interests of Ohio's prosecutors spanned more than four decades, passed away peacefully on Thursday, July 8. He was 80. Born March 7, 1941, in Olney, MD, to John Edward, Sr. and Ethna Register Murphy, John was later raised in Parkersburg,

W.Va. He graduated from Parkersburg High School in Parkersburg W.Va., in 1959. John then went on to West Virginia University, where he graduated in 1963 with a bachelor's degree in economics. John entered the U.S. Army, serving honorably for four years. He earned the rank of Captain with postings at Fort Sill, Oklahoma; Karlsruhe, Germany; and Fort Benning, Georgia. Following his service, he entered and graduated with a law degree from Capital University Law School in Columbus, Ohio in 1972.

John began his legal career in the Franklin County (OH) Prosecuting Attorney's office. But the majority of his professional career was spent as executive director of the Ohio Prosecuting Attorneys Association. The organization was founded in 1937 to represent the interests of and provide professional development to Ohio's 88 elected county prosecutors. John had a passion for the law and the responsibilities of prosecutors. He spoke of these public servants "who are truly on a quest in the pursuit of justice for all of our citizens." "Prosecuting attorneys serve as 'ministers of justice' — indeed, they are justice-driven," he once wrote. "This applies to putting criminals behind bars and making sure the punishment fits the crime. But their work also entails making sure that people innocently accused of committing a crime are not ultimately charged or convicted."

John spent 37 years representing the prosecuting group's law-and-order positions before legislators as they crafted state laws. When he retired in September 2017, the Columbus Dispatch called him a "statehouse fixture" and he was feted in a celebration in the Ohio Statehouse Atrium.

In his retirement, John never strayed too far from his beloved Columbus, enjoying golf games with buddies and frequent trips to the Tremont Library in Upper Arlington.

John is survived by a daughter, Catherine Murphy (John Nagy) of West End, N.C.; and sister, Mary Ann Shaw (Jerry) of Parkersburg, W.Va.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a sister Joan Marks (Walter), and his son Michael Sean Murphy, formerly of Pinehurst.

The family offers appreciation to the staff of Ohio Health Hospice and Riverside Methodist Hospital, who all provided compassionate care. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Rita School for the Deaf in Cincinnati, Ohio, or the Salvation Army Central Ohio Area. Arrangements entrusted to SCHOEDINGER NORTHWEST. To share memories or condolences, please visit www.schoedinger.com.

St. v. Worley, ___ Ohio St.3d ___, 2021-Ohio-2207. Death sentence upheld in a case involving the extended kidnapping and asphyxiation killing of 20-year-old female victim. (Decided July 1, 2021) (Fulton County)

State v. Brinkman, ___ Ohio St.3d ___, 2021-Ohio-2473. Guilty pleas and death sentences reversed in triple-homicide case because of plea-advisement error in failing to give oral advisements on right to confrontation and right to proof beyond a reasonable doubt. (Decided July 21, 2021) (Cuyahoga County)

Gabbard v. Madison Local School Dist. Bd. of Edn., ___ Ohio St.3d ___, 2021-Ohio-2067. School employees – R.C. 109.78(D) – R.C. 2923.122(D)(1)(a) – Authorization to carry a deadly weapon or dangerous ordnance on school grounds – R.C. 109.78(D) prohibits a school from employing a person who goes armed while on duty in his or her job unless the employee has satisfactorily completed an approved basic peace-officer-training program or has 20 years of experience as a peace officer. (Decided June 23, 2021)

Newly-Accepted Criminal Law Cases Since 5/1/21

21-670 St. v. Barnes Whether a defendant has a reasonable and legitimate basis to withdraw a guilty plea before sentencing upon learning of evidence that: (1) was previously withheld from the defendant; and (2) would have changed the defendant’s decision to plead guilty. (Cuyahoga County)

21-579 St. v. Bunch (1) Whether trial courts should deny a hearing on a post-conviction petition based on a blanket rule that it is automatically a reasonable strategic decision to rely on cross-examination alone instead of consulting with and calling an expert witness; (2) whether the defendant was transferred to adult court without a finding that the defendant was not amenable to treatment in juvenile court; (3) when making a sexual predator finding, whether it is reversible error for the trial court to fail to state that it is holding the hearing pursuant to R.C. 2950.09(B); (4) whether the trial court erred when it sentenced the defendant because the findings supporting consecutive sentences are clearly and convincingly not supported by the record and the sentence is contrary to law. (Mahoning County)

21-483 St. v. Belville (1) whether supplemental discovery, which the State is obligated to turn over to the defense, tolls speedy-trial time for constitutional speedy-trial purposes; (2) whether a defendant’s inaction in providing discovery to the State, even when not requested, tolls speedy-trial time indefinitely without violating constitutional and statutory speedy-trial rights. (Lawrence County)

21-481 St. v. Bellamy When a conviction is overturned on appeal due to the late disclosure of an expert witness, whether Crim.R. 16(K) requires that testimony from said expert witness must be excluded at a new trial on remand. (State’s Appeal; Delaware County)

21-452 St. v. Jackson (1) whether an officer’s act of opening a driver’s door and ordering the driver to step outside the vehicle constitutes a search under the Fourth Amendment and Article I, Section 14 of the Ohio Constitution; (2) whether a Mimms order provides a lawful right of access to search a vehicle’s interior and whether, after a driver is asked to step out of the vehicle, the responding officer must have an independent justification to search the interior of the vehicle in order for an item to be properly observed in plain view. (Hamilton County)

21-428 St. v. Stutler Whether a trial court has discretion to deny a level of change requested by an institutionalized NGRI-murder defendant in regard to the conditions of his commitment in the absence of clear and convincing evidence that the level change should not be granted. (Stark County)

21-392 St. v. Brown Whether the public policy underlying the civil immunity relied upon by the First District supports a similar application of criminal immunity. (State’s Appeal; Hamilton County)

21-382 St. v. Yontz Whether a person subject to conditions of supervision is required to violate those conditions in order to challenge their illegality. (Guernsey County)

It allows members to not only find experts for their cases, but to preview defense experts, request more information about individual experts, and to populate more experts to the list. In the database, members can also find excerpts of some experts' previous testimony, resumes, CVs, and other helpful information. Currently populated with expert requests from emails collected over the past year, we encourage members to explore the database, to add new experts, and to contribute additional information about individual experts, such as: |
| 2021-015 Requested by: Cuyahoga County Prosecuting Attorney Cuyahoga County lacks the authority to establish an electric utility when consent of the municipalities has not been given. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CVs and resumes; • Depositions; • Transcripts of prior testimony; • Publications by the expert; • The expert's current fee structure; and |
| 2021-014 Requested by: Richland County Prosecuting Attorney A county satisfies its duty, pursuant to R.C. 1901.111 and 1901.312, to pay a two-fifths share of the "costs, premiums or charges" for the group health care coverage by paying two-fifths of the employer share of premiums or funding levels established by the city. | |
| 2021-013 Requested by: Geauga County Prosecuting Attorney If a township's town hall is located in the same building as office space, and if the township proposes to renovate both the office space and the town meeting hall, R.C. 505.26 prevails over R.C. 511.01 whenever the majority of the cost of the work will be allocated to renovating office space. | |

- Any other information or documents that shed light on the expert, his/her expertise, and his/her potential bias.

Brief Bank

The OPAA is happy to announce yet another new member benefit! Much like the expert database, our new brief bank has been a long time in the making. Many of you may remember our database from 1999 (yes, we were cutting edge back in the day) that actually housed 936 Ohio based briefs from 16 counties. It was clunky and caused us a lot of work to add files but it worked. This new offering is still in its infancy, but it will be much simpler to add your county's briefs, as well as easier searching. Also included in the database will be our very own expert Steve Taylor's criminal practice memos!

We believe you will find these new databases useful and easy to navigate. As always, this benefit is offered to you as OPAA members, please do not share the credentials outside of your office. Any questions or requests for credentials should be directed to Steve Hall at the OPAA office. (steve@ohiopa.org)

OPAA app

Be sure to download the free OPAA app! While the app offers similar content to the OPAA website, there are a few key added benefits:

- Push notifications: We believe the ability to send push notifications of upcoming events and newly available content is key for the Association. We intend to use push notifications through the app as an additional means of communicating important information.
- Contacts integration: the app allows users to add prosecutors and expert assistants to their personal

Contacts (using the plus sign beside each contact). This feature is unique to the mobile application. Also, much like the website, while on the roster page you can touch on the name to pull up a picture of the prosecutor.

- OPAA Alerts: An app only feature is the ability to share updates and announcements through the “Alerts” feature. The alerts inside the app, combined with “Push” notifications, give us the ability to communicate with members in a new, more efficient manner.

The app is available from both the Apple Store and Google Play. We hope you will find the OPAA app useful. Please share this information with everyone in your office. We encourage all feedback.

Summit County Prosecutor's Office Diversity Calender

Last summer the Summit County Prosecutor's Office started a new committee in their Office called The Ambassadors of Equity and Social Justice. Prosecutor Walsh selected a diverse group of 14 individuals. The committee members are diverse by race, gender, sexual orientation, age and job position. We started this committee after hearing about a similar committee in King County, Washington. One of many things done by the committee is a monthly calendar that is sent out and they encourage everyone to read. They also do a friday raffle each week with various questions for employees to get to know each other better or as a way to recognize positive things being done by our employees. Once a month, Prosecutor Walsh includes a question about our diversity calendar such as, “please share with everyone one thing you learned from our calendar this month”, or “what you enjoyed most on the calendar this month.” For anyone who is interested in learning more about the committee, how it is run, what they discuss and their goals, please feel free to contact Tania Nemer, The Summit County Community Outreach Prosecutor who Chairs the committee. Tania will be happy to provide you with additional information. In the meantime, check out their July Calendar!

At the Office

Gallia County prosecutor Jason Holdren and his daughter Rose were in town back in April and toured the Statehouse with District 93 Representative Jason Stephens. The tour included a trip to the purported haunted Statehouse rotunda!

OPAA Training

Summer Workshop - The OPAA membership was on-site at the Breakers Hotel for the 2021 Summer Workshop! Weather was mostly good and the training received good reviews. We had 174 attendees from 45 counties and the AG's office. Thanks to all that made the trip! It was nice to see everyone! Pictures are posted on our Twitter account @ohprosecutors

OPAA free webinar – Firearm Specifications and Related Issues by Steve Taylor will take place Thursday, August 19 from 12:00-1:00. 1 hour of CLE will be available.

Fall Training - The Fall Training agenda has been set and sent to the Supreme Court for approval. It should be on the website by August 1 and printed copies sent out as soon as they are back from the printer. We'll once again be in Cleveland at the Crowne Plaza Cleveland at Playhouse Square, September 23rd and 24th.

Juvenile Prosecutor Training – We have the topics lined up for the Juvenile Prosecutor Training to be held Thursday, October 14th at the Sheraton Columbus at Capitol Square. That agenda will be posted to the website late August.
